Route Facts

The ride starts from the Fold, which is a holistic centre housing local designers, complementary therapists and a café. The venue also runs events and workshops.

Local points of interest on the ride include the 14th century Leigh Court Barn, an outstanding example of the English medieval carpentry craft, and the largest cruck framed structure in Britain.

See a host of wildlife on the Leigh Brook such as Grey Wagtails, Dippers and if you're lucky you might get sight of an otter.

Directions

- 1 Park in the Fold's car park. Look for the far end by the wooded lane. TL here and go out of the gate up the lane.
- 2 At the top TR and walk along past the roundabout and then continue uphill on your bike and then downhill into the pretty hamlet of Leigh. Continue out of Leigh on Brockamin Ln uphill to the hamlet of the same name.
- 3 Continue out of Brockamin along pretty rural lanes dotted with cottages until you reach the 'T' junction with Hopton Lane.
- 4 At 'T' junction TL down Hopton Lane (signed Leigh Sinton and Malvern). Continue down the narrow rural lane as it winds through idyllic countryside and over the Leigh Brook until you reach the
- 5 Follow Suckley Lane as it dips and then rises all the way to Bransford.
- 6 Continue through Bransford to the 'T' junction with Leigh Lane. TR here towards the roundabout. TL back down the lane at the side of the Fold and back into their car park / your start point.
